WASHINGTON, July 2.—Relatively high pressure continues over the Mississippi Valley and the Eastern and Southern states, and low pressure prevails over the plains states and the Rocky Mountain and plateau regions. This pressure distribution has been attended by local rains in Florida, New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, Wyoming, Northeast Montana and North Dakota and fair weather in all other regions.

High temperatures for the season prevail generally east of the Rocky Mountains, except on the New England and south Atlantic coasts and in Texas. The weather is cooler over the Rocky Mountain and plateau regions. The outlook is for fair weather Thursday and Friday east of the Mississippi River, except that showers are probable in the Florida.
